

Kyann Flint, Director of Accessibility, Wandke Consulting

Born and raised in the Pacific Northwest, Kyann Flint is the Director of Accessibility at Wandke Consulting. A speaker, writer, and the host of Spark Access, Kyann is a passionate advocate for the disability community and strives to educate society on how social barriers such as ignorance and ableism limit the disability community. As a disabled woman, Kyann lives life to change the perception of disability, with the motto “Defying the Defined Disability.” She also loves travel and coffee.
